

Inhouse Show 2004 – a success

Hans Lang Head of Product Marketing

Josef Zumstein Head of Sales & Marketing

Komax ended business year 2004 on a high note. Thanks to the record attendance at the in-house show, more customers than ever made their way to visit us at Dierikon. Many customers traveled from far away to take a look at our new products. We enjoyed hosting you all and heartily thank you for the effort you made in coming here. We hope your trip was worthwhile.

The occasion was definitely worthwhile for Komax. We consider these on-site visits to be an invaluable way for us to find out about your needs and to listen to your feedback. The ideas and suggestions you give us today allow us to produce the right products for you in the future. It is only through joint efforts like this that we can continue in the future to provide you with products that assure your top performance and enable you to increase your effectiveness. This is a challenge we gladly take on in collaboration with you.

The pages ahead will give you a full account of the innovations featured at our in-house show. We hope you enjoy reading this issue.
